Journalism & Mass Communication. Senior journalist Shri Vijay Kranti, who is Principal of the School, was authorised to select other office bearers and constitute the Governing Council of the School. The senior members of the Union gave some suggestions for smooth functioning of the School.

Some of the members expressed concern over the non-activation of the NUJ (I) website. The secretary general Shri Ras Bihari assured the members to launch a new website shortly. He said creating a website is an easy task, but maintaining it regularly with vital information is surely not an easy task. He said he has already started efforts to collect important information and some old
